FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Who do I call if I have questions?

A. If you have any questions regarding your new account, changing your automatic withdrawals or automatic deposits to your new account, or what to do with the closing account form, please call our Customer Care Center or your local branch at 855-527-4111.

Q. What if my request to change accounts is not accepted?

A. On the authorization forms, the company is requested to notify you or a bank representative if the form you submit is not sufficient to change or establish the direct deposit or automatic bill payment.

Q. What is a direct deposit (ACH credit)?

A. Direct deposit is a quick, easy and secure method of receiving funds into your account. For example, you can receive your payroll, governmental benefits, and investment dividends by a direct deposit. The funds are received and deposited electronically into your bank account.

Q. When will my direct deposits start?

A. It normally takes 2 or 3 pay periods to start a new direct deposit. For example, if you decide to direct deposit your payroll check into your new account, the direct deposit will most likely not go into your new account for 2 or 3 pay periods. The same applies for existing direct deposits, so you will want to make sure you keep the account open that you are changing from until you know that your new account is receiving your deposits.

Q. What is an automatic bill payment (ACH debit)?

A. Automatic bill payment is a convenient way to pay different types of companies, such as electric, gas, telephone, loans, credit cards, insurance, etc. Usually, these automatic withdrawals are set up with a specific company by giving them a voided check and a date to take out your payment that is due to that company. These types of transactions are sent through your account electronically on the date and for the amount that you specify.

Q. When will my automatic bill start paying from my new account?

A. Generally, it takes 2 to 3 billing cycles for your transaction to get changed over or started. If you contact your billing company to request that they take your payment from your new account, change from a different account, or start a new payment, the charges may not come out for the first 2 to 3 billing cycles after your request. That is why it is important to leave the account that you are planning on closing open until you have verified that all necessary changes have been made. This means you could have two checking accounts open at two different banks at the same time.

Q. How can I verify that my automatic bill payment (debit) has been made?

A. You can verify that your payments have started going through your new account by calling our 24-hour access line at 1-877-372-2447 or by logging on to your online banking service at bankesb.com, or checking your monthly checking account statement. You will also want to verify with the billing company that they received your payment from your new account by checking your monthly billing statement or calling their customer service department at the phone number on your billing statement.
